Get down to business at The Granary

Good business requires careful planning. And planning is something that the team at The Granary excels at – making sure that when you book your meeting or function with us, every detail is catered for.

From workshops to corporate away days, business lunches to Annual General Meetings, our professional team will ensure that your delegates are well looked after with their attentive and friendly service.

Set in a tranquil rural location away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life, The Granary provides the perfect location for focused and uninterrupted conferences and meetings. With ample parking on site and comfortable, modern amenities you'll find our facilities first rate.

With easy access from the M5/M42, and just a short taxi ride away from Kidderminster station, The Granary is in easy reach of local business centres including Worcester, Birmingham and Wolverhampton. Those travelling from further afield can benefit from our luxurious en-suite accommodation.

Our professional team will ensure that your delegates are well looked after.

With catering provided by our double AA rosette winning restaurant and our 18 bedroom hotel, we can help you manage your schedule to ensure that everything runs smoothly. From business breakfasts to working lunches, reception dinners to afternoon teas, our kitchen can provide everything you need to keep your delegates happy and refreshed. From tea and coffee upon arrival, through to our renowned Carveries, we can fulfil all of your guest's food and drink requirements with our award winning menus packed with fresh ingredients and locally sourced produce.

With a range of three suites available, The Granary can cater for a variety of different sized meetings and conferences. The intimate setting of The Cottage caters provides the ideal venue for small groups, or can be used as a break out area for larger conferences. Our spacious ground floor suites, The Terrace and The Orangery, can cater for larger numbers and can be arranged in seating styles to suit your group's needs. If you need to take a break, our landscaped gardens provide the ideal spot to relax. With wireless broadband throughout and complimentary flip charts available for business meetings, the team at The Granary will strive to ensure that you have everything you need for a productive day.
